TAKA Jewellery has marked its second appearance on the Enterprise 50 list this year.

Enterprise 50 (E50) Awards is an annual award that recognizes 50 of the most enterprising privately held companies in Singapore. Other aspects also include the business model and innovations, management ideals and governance, market branding and overall potential.

TAKA Jewellery has proven to be a company that has the ability to sustain itself through our business models and innovative capabilities.

"Winning this award again gives us affirmation that our business model and strategies are on the right path. The award has also enhanced our business image, resulting in greater recognition among suppliers and customers as being a credible company." - Mr Michael Teo, Managing Director.
